Four Interesting Topics This Morning.

The Great Sale of Parasols

The fact that there's hardly two styles alike among the hundreds of sample Parasols is one reason why the prices are so low. Not enough of any one kind to enable the makers to offer any of them in separate lots—hence we secured the entire lot at prices averaging one-half of their values.

Ladies' Parasols from 75c. to $3.98 that are valued from $1.50 to $7.50, and Children's and Misses' Parasols from 12½c. to $1.00 valued from 25c. to $2.00.

Window Shades For 19c. Worth 25c.

Good Cloth Opaque Shades that you usually find marked 25c. They're very pretty in white, green and Old Rose, and really superior Curtains at this price. There's not a flaw in them and for a low priced shade we know they'll satisfy you perfectly—336 feet.

So Many People Have Purchased Our 19c. Shirt-Waist Suits.

That unless you come quickly the principal sizes may be gone. They are without doubt the greatest June bargains in these popular garments that the city has ever seen.

Think of Suits that retailed from $2.95 to $5.95 now $1.98. Lawns and Oxford weaves.

A Good China Matting 19c. Reduced From 25c.

RIVALRY TO BE INTENSE

Tee-Dee Summer Outings a General Topic.

BALLOTS ARE COMING IN

Now Running into the Hundreds and New Names Are Being Entered Every Day—The Rules of the Contest.

The Tee-Dee Summer Outing Tours are rapidly becoming an absorbing topic of conversation.

A goodly number of names have already been listed, and will be announced in a few days. As the plan is talked over one with another, the rivalry becomes more intense.

Ballots are beginning to run into the hundreds and new names being entered every day. It behooves every contestant to gather as many votes as possible.

SEND IN VOTES.

It is important that the holders of ballots should deposit them at once at the Times-Dispatch office or at one of the voting stations. This will greatly facilitate the keeping of the records and assist greatly in making an accurate count for the work of counting and tabulating thousands of ballots is by no means a trivial matter.

Several inquiries have been received by mail and phone as to who are eligible to compete for the week outings.

Any lady (no statement of age is required) who is employed in office, school, store, factory or at home, and by her own efforts contributes in part or wholly to her own support, is eligible.

Two ladies must be voted for on the same ballot, and the two having the highest number of votes will have first choice of hotels; the next highest, second choice, etc., until the fourteen parties are placed. There are seven hotels on the Tee-Dee list, and each hotel will accommodate two parties each one week.

Each of the fourteen parties, of two ladies each, selected, will have the privilege of inviting a chaperone, making in all fourteen parties of three ladies each, or forty-two ladies in all.

The plan is simple. The offer is a most inviting one. All that is necessary is to send a vote, at the rate of 10c. per vote, free of all cost, is to get votes. Especial attention is called to the system of voting by certificate.

THE VOTING COUPON.

The voting coupon may be found on the third page of the Times-Dispatch, right-hand bottom corner, every day until July 15th, inclusive. There will be also issued, from the Times-Dispatch office, a voting certificate, made payable in votes for different numbers and counted as per the following plan:

For each paid in advance subscription, for a person not already a subscriber, a certificate will be issued for half as many votes as there are cents in the price of the subscription made. That is, 12 cents for one week's subscription in Richmond or Manchester would call for a certificate of six votes; 50 cents for one month's subscription, 25 votes; $1.00 for one year's subscription in Richmond or Manchester, 50 votes; $2.00 for one year's subscription out of town, 100 votes, etc.

One advantage of this plan lies in the fact that when a subscription is made, the holder of the certificate, and, then, also, have the privilege of using the ballots that appear day after day in your paper.

BALLOT STATIONS.

Ballots may be cast at ballot stations at any time, up to 6 P. M. July 15th, when the polls will be closed.

Collections will be made at regular intervals. Booklets and folders telling all about the hotels on the Tee-Dee Outings list may be had at any of the places named.

CAPITOL BUILDING

An Additional Appropriation Likely to Be Asked for in November.

Now that the Capitol Commission has adjourned until November without taking any action looking to the repair of the present structure, this is taken to mean that an additional appropriation will be asked, which, in connection with the amount already available, will enable the adequate renovation of the building to be accomplished.

There are several influential members of the General Assembly who favor the construction of a new wing to the present Capitol. A new plan has been suggested, however, and has been commended by several influential gentlemen. It is the idea of erecting a new wing to the Capitol as it stands and the relocation of it thereafter to use by the State Library as a museum.

Richmond seems to have enjoyed a monopoly of the rain. The storm came up the river, reaching here soon after the Pocahontas is due on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and once here reminded one of the fraternal delegates new-coming to the city, liking so well, was loth to leave.

The Weather Bureau reported that up to 8 P. M. half an inch had fallen. This was about half of what came down before 10. Inquiry at the office of the Chesapeake and Ohio train dispatcher, resulted in the information that "only showers" had visited the country along the banks of the James, as it winds toward Lynchburg. Local rains do not affect the good standing of the James to sell liquor, because he was not licensed to sell anything, unless the liquor territory of the reign of Jupiter Pluvius is very much enlarged, no freshet in the river need be feared. The telephone wires seem to be alone in their distress.

At midnight the rainfall had sobered down to a steady stroke.

On Social Clubs.

One of the subjects that will probably call for some legislation at the autumn session of the General Assembly is the matter of social clubs. It is suggested that some of the judges of the State are recommending the chartering of social clubs by act of the General Assembly. Several such cases are reported, wherein a man was refused a license to sell liquor, because he was not deemed a proper person or his place not a fit place, yet the same applicant was granted a charter for social club purposes. It is suggested that such cases be provided for by law, but on Sundays as well. It is not believed that this is the intent of the framers of the law.

Virginia Boy Wins Honors.

The friends of the Rev. S. S. Heppner will be pleased to know that his eldest son, Charles, a two-year-old boy, ranked fourth in a class of four hundred men, two hundred of whom applied for the honor.

This was high rank for him to take, considering that during his whole course of study he has conducted a successful insurance business as an agent.

He has just had the proud honor also of being elected president of the class of the present graduating class at West Point.

Cost of Living Higher.

"It costs forty per cent. more to live now than it did five years ago," said Secretary Upham, of the Corporation Commission, yesterday. "Everything except salaries have advanced. Even wages in many occupations have advanced."

He enabled the earner to meet the increased cost of living, but men on salaries have had no increase at all. The result is that the cost of living is higher, and the cost of living is higher, and the cost of living is higher.

Mr. Wynne Recovering.

Mr. W. Graham Wynne, who is being treated at the City Hospital for injuries sustained by an assault, or in some unaccountable manner, at Fourth and Main Streets, yesterday, is recovering. The use of his mental faculties, and his recovery is now very hopefully expected. He has no recollection of the assault or injury or the manner of its occurrence.

Mr. McCabe in the City.

Mr. John McCabe, of Wilmington, Del., was recently called to the City by the illness of his sister, Mrs. Mary T. Patram, relict of John R. Patram, who died on the 3d of June.

Mr. McCabe is a native of Richmond. He was a pupil at the Lancasterian School fifty years ago, when he was about 14 years old. He called on his old teacher, now living in the city.

Mr. Barth Here.

Rev. Carl Barth, of the Presbyterian Church, who graduated from the Union Theological Seminary two years ago, is in the city, the guest of the Misses Henderson, on Barton Heights. Mr. Barth is a member of the Presbytery of Montgomery, and is doing extensive pastoral and evangelistic work in Craig and Allegheny counties.

Dr. Everett Out.

Dr. John C. Everett, a prominent young physician of Nelson county, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the House of Delegates at the coming election. Dr. Everett is quite popular, and has before cherished the ambition to fill. He believes he will win out this fall.

Musicals To-night.

The music pupils of Mr. Ernest L. Bolling will give a recital to-night at old Albemarle. Mr. Bolling's class is very large this year and the musicals will be the best ever given by his pupils.

Dr. Wellford Well.

Dr. J. S. Wellford, who has been sick, has recovered and resumed his practice.

WATER CAME DOWN BY THE BUCKETFUL

With Many a Rush and Gush Swish and Swirl it Came Richmond-ward.

The rain never "came down at Lodore" with more unheeded of noises, outlandish sounds and inconvenient results than it swooped down upon Richmond yesterday evening shortly after 7 o'clock. From that time until after half after nine water poured down Richmond-ward in bucketfuls, accompanied by long sheets of flame and distant grumbling of thunder. Considerable damage was done to telephone wires, and the service for the remainder of the night was more or less crippled.

Richmond seems to have enjoyed a monopoly of the rain. The storm came up the river, reaching here soon after the Pocahontas is due on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and once here reminded one of the fraternal delegates new-coming to the city, liking so well, was loth to leave.

MAY BE YET A TWO-HANDED RACE

It begins to look as if there may be only two candidates for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator in 1905 to fill the vacancy which will be occasioned by the expiration of the term of Hon. Thomas S. Martin, and political gossip is saying that those two will be the present junior Senator and Governor A. J. Montague. A gentleman close to the Hon. Allen Caperton Braxton, of Staunton, said last night that he had it from pretty good authority that the question of being a candidate was not being Mr. Braxton much, but that, and that, indeed, he had about abandoned the idea of entering the race. While it is tacitly understood that Gov. Tyler will enter the race, his best friends seem to realize that the leading candidates will be Messrs. Martin and Montague, and that other aspirants will but tend to complicate rather than clarify the situation, inasmuch as the rank and file seem disposed to have the battle fought between the two men who are everywhere regarded as the typical leaders of their respective party factions.

Although the battle is yet a long way off, the Martin and Montague people are alive to the exigencies of the occasion, and are looking out for candidates all over the State.

Death of Mrs. Hale. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DINWIDDIE, VA., June 10.—Mrs. Hale, who was formerly Miss Mary Haddon, daughter of the late Joseph Haddon, of this county, died at the old homestead a few miles from here Monday evening. Social and Personal

The wedding of Miss May Goode Morrison to Mr. Frank Deane Meanley was celebrated at 6 P. M. yesterday in the home of the bride, No. 18 East Franklin Street, the Rev. Buckner M. Randolph, of Emmanuel Church, being the celebrant.

The house canvassed in white was profusely decorated in white and green. Bridesmaids, brides and bridesmaids, making the beautiful floral adornment. Thilo's orchestra was stationed on the south porch opening into the rear drawing room.

The bride entered on the arm of Mr. W. V. Johnson, a very intimate friend of her family, who gave her away. She wore a gown of white silk net, embroidered with a delicate pattern of white and blue, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She was attended by two little flower maidens, Miss Louise Morrison and Miss Mary Goode, both in white and blue, carrying baskets of flowers, and by her sister, Miss Helen Morrison with Colonel Meanley, who was in white with transparent veil and sleeves. Her flowers were sweet peas.

The groom awaited the approach of the bride at the altar raised between the windows of the front drawing room, where Mr. Sydney Weisger, of Petersburg, the son of General David Weisger, acted as best man.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, Mrs. Bluff Spotted Smith assisted in the drawing room, where Mr. and Mrs. Meanley left last night for an extended tour which will include a visit to New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, and by way of Norfolk, home to Richmond.
